

ATTENTION TKC SHAREHOLDERS:

Important information about your dividend

TKC

dividends will be taxable starting in 2014

With the distribution of 2013 shareholder dividends, TKC will have distributed the full amount set aside in trust for shareholders by the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA).

Moving forward, dividend funds will be drawn from the corporation's retained earnings rather than the original ANCSA trust. This means that starting in 2014, all TKC dividends will be taxable and must be reported on your federal tax return.

Beginning with the 2014 tax year, TKC will mail out 1099 forms to all shareholders by Jan. 31 of each calendar year. Please keep these forms safe with other important financial documents and report your TKC dividend income each year, starting with your 2014 federal tax return.
