21. Terms, Conditions & Restrictions

Class "B" stock will have the same ANCSA restrictions as Class "A" stock. For example: the new stock cannot be sold, pledged, assigned or taken away by creditors. Like Class "A" stock, Class "B" stock will not have preemptive rights to purchase additional stock in The Kuskokwim Corporation (TKC).

Acceptance of Class "B" stock constitutes acceptance of the following terms and conditions by the shareholder and their custodian: The 1991 amendments allow the board of Directors to place additional terms and conditions on new stock.

The Class "B" stock shall have a right to vote.

The Class "B" stock shall be life estate which means it only lasts as long as the shareholder owning the stock is alive. After the death of that shareholder the stock is cancelled without compensation to their heirs. That means that even though Class "A" stock is inheritable, Class "B" stock will not be inheritable.

The Class "B" stock, inchoate rights thereto, and the right to receive dividends and distributions may not be sold, pledged, assigned in present or future, transferred by gift or otherwise transferred except as permitted under ANCSA.

Class "B" stock will be cancelled by TKC if it is later determined that the recipient was not eligible to receive the stock or if the stockholder violated any condition of holding the stock.

Other terms and conditions hereafter approved by TKC Board resolution.
